AUGUSTUS E. WILLSON
For United States Senator Short Term
WM. MARSHALL BULLITT
For Congress
Ninth District—J. G. IRELAND.
Judge Court of Appeals.
Third District—JAMES DENTON.

The Republican attack on the war revenue bill was continued in the Senate by Senator Penrose. He declared that the measure was "war legislation in time of peace," and said that the necessity for additional revenue arose from the "total failure of the Democratic fiscal policy of tariff for revenue only."

As far as the National Farmer is concerned, we have had enough of college professors and Chautauqua lecturers at the head of national affairs. What we want and what the people demand is a business administration and Protection to farmer. Let's get busy this fall.—Bay home industries and the American City (Mich.) National Farmer.

OUR FOREIGN BORN.

A special bulletin issued by the Department of Commerce shows that there were 13,515,886 persons of foreign birth living in the United States when the last census closed in 1910. These figures show an increase of approximately 3,500,000 over the number of foreigners residing here in 1900. The increasing ratio is slightly in excess of the general increase in population.

Approximately 10 per cent. of this foreign-born population live in New York. The census statistics show that 1,221,013 took up permanent residences in New York, although only 475,000 have become citizens of the United States.

The world-wide prayer for peace has not taken effect, judging from the headlines in the dailies.—Over News.

Strangely enough, the explanations given by the various parties as to the cause of the war are much more easily reconciled than the reasons given for the advance in the price of certain commodities.

At the recent State primary in California, the bulkiest of the Bull Moose States in 1912, the Republicans poiled a larger vote than that of the Progressives and the Democrats combined, and "Hi" Johnson was a candidate, too.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

The Mysterious Knocking.

The house was still
With the stillness of death.
It wasn't Bill Jones
And it wasn't Maebeth.

Suddenly, out of that intense quiet, there came an imperious knocking at the door.
"Open!" cried a loud voice. "Open, or I'll break in the door!"

From inside there came no answer—no sound save now and then a faint rubbing.

The knocks grew louder, more insistent. They developed into bangs.

"Open, I say! Open immediately, or I swear I'll break the lock!"

And the banging continued ceaselessly, ominously. What dastardly crime can the poor wretch inside have committed?

Ah, a voice from within!
"I'll let you in," it says. "Give me just two minutes and I'll let you in."

"Two minutes! Ha-ha! That's good. Bah, for your two minutes!" And the mighty fist kept up its ceaseless thunder on the panels.

At last the door opened, and Rugglesby Sprowg, in his bath robe, passed out with his towel over his arm.

Hanscombe Speel, also in his bath robe, pushed roughly past him into the bathroom.

"A pretty note!" he growled. "This is the third morning this week you've made me late at the office by hogging the bathroom for three-quarters of an hour."—Louisville Times.

A WARNING TO MANY

Some Interesting Facts About Kidney Trouble.

Few people realize to what extent their health depends upon the condition of the kidneys.

The physician in nearly all cases of serious illness, makes a chemical analysis of the patient's urine. He knows that unless the kidneys are doing their work properly, the other organs cannot readily be brought back to health and strength.

When the kidneys are neglected or abused in any way, serious results are sure to follow. According to health statistics, Bright's disease which is really an advanced form of kidney trouble, caused nearly ten thousand deaths in 1913, in the State of New York alone. Therefore, it behooves us to pay more attention to the health of these most important organs.

An ideal herbal compound that has had remarkable success as a kidney remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great Kidney, Liver and Bladder Remedy.

The mild and healing influence of this preparation, in most cases, is soon realized, according to sworn statements and verified testimony of those who have used the remedy.

If you feel that your kidneys require attention, and wish a sample bottle, write to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Mention this paper, enclose ten cents and they will gladly forward it to you by Parcel Post.

Swamp-Root is sold by every druggist in bottles of two sizes—50c and $1.00.

If there is plenty of quantity to your love a woman doesn't bother about its quality.

FIFTY YEARS AGO IN CINCINNATI.

(Commercial Tribune, Oct. 19, 1861.)
The weather was warm and slight rains fell during yesterday. The temperature ranged between 48 and 65 degrees.

The 117th United States Colored Regiment passed through Covington a few days since, en route to the front. It is said the men who compose this regiment are worth $1,500,000, being one of the richest organizations in the army.

Quotations of cereals posted on the board of the Merchants' Exchange yesterday are as follows: Wheat $1.95; corn $1.12; oats 74 cents and flour $10.25.

Leaves of absence of all sick and wounded soldiers have been extended for ten days, thus giving the men a longer period in which to recuperate.

The new packet Pine Grove is taking on freight for her initial trip to Pittsburgh and way landings. Her owner and commander, Captain Lon Bryson expects his boat to break all records for time between the two cities.

Despite the approach of the election the city was unusually quiet last night and the police docket today will be easily handled. Only one serious offense was reported by the police.

Among the soldiers who have been brought to the Nashville hospitals for better treatment during the past few days are nearly 100 Ohio and Kentucky men belonging to regiments from nearby territory.

TWO NERVOUS WOMEN

Made Well By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I had a severe case of nervous prostration, with palpitation of the heart, constipation, headaches, dizziness, noise in my ears, timid, nervous, restless feelings and sleeplessness."
"I read in the paper where a young woman had been cured of the same troubles by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I threw away the medicines the doctor left me and began taking the Compound. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to sit up and in a short time I was able to do all my work. Your medicine has proved itself able to do all you say it will and I have recommended it in every household I have visited."—Mrs. MARY JOHNSTON, 110 Siegel Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Bad Case.

Ephrata, Pa.—"About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hy-stERIC spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but I did not improve. I was so weak I could scarcely stand long enough to do my dishes."
"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."—Mrs. J. W.
HORNBEGER, R. No. 2, Ephrata, Pa.

The upkeep of a family keeps many a man down.

The people who pray for what they want are inclined to look down on the fellows who go out and hustle for what they need.

A woman likes to have a fern and an artificial palm in a nook in the hall, so she can brag about her conservatory when she is down town.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

A man has to buy shoes to fit his feet but no matter how long a woman lives she will always order the same sized shoes she wore when she was sixteen.
There may be a lot of heroes in the world, but no woman will admit that she is married to one of them.
Love is a thing you can get over. But you can't make a girl believe it when she is engaged.
Any woman would rather attend a course of lectures on How To Make Home Happy than stay at home and mend socks to gain her object.
A man is always more polite when he is a widower than he was when he wasn't.
What has become of the old-fashioned man who used to cure boils with a poultice made of soap and brown sugar?
The men have made such a terrible success of running the country. But that is no reason why the women should tackle the job.
There is a difference between "an revolver" and "good bye." When your hair starts to go it says "good bye."
And don't overlook the fact that every man is also the architect of his own misfortune.
